Sections

DIGITALISATION AND AI

Moderators: Réka Pusztahelyi (University of Miskolc) – Ibolya Stefán (University of Miskolc)

3th June 2025 (Timezone: Central European Summer Time)

10:20 - 10:40 Renáta Papp (Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary): Etchichal and legal challanges of AI

10:40 - 11:00 Najiba Rafizade - Gökçe Cerev - Doğa Başar Sariipek (Kocaeli University): AI, Brain-Computer Interfaces, and Social Policy in Space Law: Ethical and Criminological Challenges in the Era of Space Humanisation

11:00 - 11:20 Irina Filipova (Lobachevsky State University of Nizhni Novgorod): Development of Russian AI regulation in comparison with other approaches

11:20 - 11:40 Raghad Al-Shareedah (Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary): Artificial Intelligence Special Regulation in Jordan is an Essential Need

11:40 - 12:00 Krystyna Nizioł (University of Szczecin): Artificial Intelligence Systems – Problems and Challenges

12:00-13:00 Lunch break

13:00-13:20 Salih Tosun - Ekrem Bulut (Balikesir University - Medipol University): The Rise of Digital Volunteering: A Machine Learning-Based Analysis of Emerging Solidarity Patterns in Post-Disaster Societies

13:20 - 13:40 Ferenc Kass (University of Szeged): Analysis of the Underlying Motivations and Anticipated Impacts of the European Union's AI Act within the Hungarian Context, as Reflected in the Enforcement Practices of the Hungarian National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information

13:40 - 14:00 Szabolcs Diósi (University of Pécs): The Rise of Generative AI: Navigating Hallucinations, Misinformation and Synthetic Realities

14:00 - 14:20 Zsolt Czékmann - Evelin Ritó (University of Miskolc): Developing smart cities: technological innovations and the challenges of people-centred urban governance'

14:20 - 14:40 Omer Batuhan Dogan (University of Miskolc): Liability for Smart Products under the New EU Product Liability Directive

14:40 - 15:00 Ibolya Stefán (University of Miskolc): Risk assessment of AI Sytems

15:00 - 15:20 Réka Pusztahelyi (University of Miskolc): Fundamental rights impact assessment for high-risk AI systems

DIGITALISATION IN BUSINESS LIFE

Moderator: Ágnes Juhász (University of Miskolc)

3th June 2025 (Timezone: Central European Summer Time)

10:20 - 10:40 Ali Eid (University of Miskolc): The Conclusion of International Sales Contracts for Goods in the Era of Digitalization and Its Societal Impact

10:40 - 11:00 Jlenia De Tullio (University of Foggia): Technological advantage in the financial market: toward an effective antitrust damage protection

11:00 - 11:20 György Nádas (University of Debrecen): New Dimensions of the Principle of Freedom of Contract in the Digital Age – Normative Boundaries and Social Considerations

11:20 - 11:40 Ranko Sovilj (University of Belgrade): The impact of digitalisation and AI application in capital markets – Legal challanges and regulatory responces

11:40 - 12:00 Abdülkadir Akturan (Piri Reis University): Turkey's Digital Transformation: A Comprehensive Literature Review of Social, Legal, and Economic Challenges and Opportunities

12:00 - 12:20 Salih Tosun - Doğa Başar Sarıipek (Balikesir University - Kocaeli University): Enhancing Sustainability in Disaster Volunteering through Blockchain-Based Systems: Systemic Challenges and Strategic Opportunities

12:20 - 12:40 Ede Józsa (University of Miskolc): The Power of Smart Contracts: From Definition to Real-World Use

12:40 - 13:00 Ágnes Juhász (University of Miskolc): Thoughts on the Intersection of Technology and Marital Property Law

DIGITALISATION ON THE FIELD OF WORK I.

Moderator: Gábor Mélypataki (University of Miskolc)

3th June 2025 (Timezone: Central European Summer Time)

10:20-10:40 Sophy K J (National Law University Delhi): Gig Workers in India: Response from Legislature and Judiciary

10:40-11:00 Henriett Rab (University of Debrecen): "The Anomalies of Working Time in the Digital Era: Rethinking Labour Law for a Connected World"

11:00-11:20 Aya Dabbas (University of Debrecen): Digitization and Its Role in Advancing Migrant Workers' Protections and Rights in The Middle East

11:20 -11:40 Márton Leó Zaccaria (University of Debrecen): Interaction between labour market changes caused by digitalisation and current labour law legislation of the European Union

11:40 – 12:00 Magdolna Vallasek (Sapientia Hungarian University of Transylvania): Traces of digitisation in Romanian labour law

12:00 - 13:00 Lunch break

13:00-13:20 Peter Sipka (University of Debrecen): How will digitalisation alter the definition of work?

13:20 – 13:40 Slađana M Gligorić (University of Novi Sad): The application of artificial intelligence in labour law with special reference to European Union law

13:40 – 14:00 Marija Dragićević (University of Nis): Care Work at the Intersection of Digitalisation and the Platform Economy: Socio-Legal Challenges and Perspective

14:00 – 14:20 Dávid Adrián Máté (University of Miskolc): Cooperative work

14:20 – 14:40 Katalin Lipták - Gábor Mélypataki - Zoltán Rácz (University of Miskolc): Woman's situation on the labour market ín the mirror of digitalisation

DIGITALISATION OF LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Moderators: Adrienn Nagy – Barbara Tóth (University of Miskolc)

3th June 2025 (Timezone: Central European Summer Time)

10:20 – 10:40 Abbosbek Ochilboev (Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary): AI-Powered Justice: Balancing Innovation and Fairness

10:40 - 11:00 Kordélia Tóth (Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary): The Impact of Digitalization on Judicial Enforcement

11:00 - 11:20 Amir Hossein Nik Nejad (University of Szeged): Comparative Judicial Independence perspective

11:20 - 11:40 Ivan Kundrát (Pavol Jozef Šafárik University): Use of Artificial Intelligence in Case Law Analysis

11:40 - 12:00 Nshimiyimana Francois Regis (Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary): Digitalization and justice: The role of electronic evidence in combating cybercrime in Rwanda.

12:00 - 13:00 Lunch break

13:00 - 13:20 Milica Ilić (University of Miskolc): The impact of digitalization on legal practice

13:20 - 13:40 Akylbek Dzhusupov (Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary): Electronic evidence in civil proceedings of the Kyrgyz Republic. Adaptation to digital challenges.

13:40 - 14:00 László Kis (University of Győr): Challenges of digialization in criminal procedures - the Hungarian perspective

14:00 - 14:20 Vanja Bajovic (University of Belgrade): Digital Evidence in Serbia: Consequences of Legal Uncertainty and Regulatory Gaps

14:20 - 14:40 Dóra Pálfi (Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary): Online dispute resolution in Hungary

14:40 - 15:00 Botond Németh (University of Pécs): Access to Justice and Online Courts: Longstanding problems and modern-day responses

DIGITALISATION ON THE FIELD OF WORK II.

Moderator: Bernadett Solymosi Szekeres (University of Miskolc)

4th June 2025 (Timezone: Central European Summer Time)

10:00 - 10:20 Aljoša Polajžar (University of Maribor): The (im)permissibility of covert monitoring at the workplace: Slovenian perspective

10:20 – 10:40 József Hajdú (University of Szeged): The right to social security/protection for digitally displaced workers and robot tax

10:40 – 11:00 Maria Vivien Tunyi (University of Miskolc): Self-employment in the context of digitalisation

11:00 – 11:20 Sanja Zlatanović (University of Belgrade): Disconnect to Protect: Labor Law Approaches to Mental Health Challenges in the Digital Era

11:20 – 11:40 Laura Kovács-Berényi (University of Miskolc): Promoting women's participation in the labour market through national tax legislation

11:40 - 12:00 Zsófia Papp (University of Miskolc): Fundamental Rights in the Digital Workplace: A Human Rights-Based Analysis of Telework in Romania

12: 00 – 13:00 Lunch break

13:00 – 13:20 Ljubinka Kovacevic (University of Belgrade): Digitalisation and the Right to Collective Bargaining

13:20 – 13:40 Adél Tóth (University of Miskolc): Artificial intelligence as a labor market filter: who gets through the door?

13:40 – 14:00 Lidia de la Iglesia Aza (University of Santiago de Compostela): Artficiel intelligent and equality in recruitment

14:00 – 14:20 Bernadett Solymosi Szekeres (University of Miskolc): Period-friendly workplace as the workplace of the future

DIGITALISATION FOR THE PUBLIC BENEFIT

Moderator: Doğa Başar Sariipek (Kocaeli University)

4th June 2025 (Timezone: Central European Summer Time)

10:00 - 10:20 Bonee Jaye Besana Bagaipo(The University of Mindanao): Digitalization: a boon or bane? A case study on the Philippines.

10:20 - 10:40 Gyula Csáki-Hatalovics (Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary): How social media changed the communication of the government

10:40 - 11:00 Dávid Keskeny (Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary): Financial literacy in the digital age: educational tools and consumer empowerment

11:00 – 11:20 Erzsébet Csatlós (University of Szeged): Automated Administrative Authority Decisions: Expectation vs. Reality

11:20 – 11:40 Andrea Molnár (University of Miskolc): Interactions of the new land registry system with the lawth the law

11:40 – 12:00 Enikő Somogyi (Ludovika University of Public Service): Digitalization of parliamentary offices, with special focus on the parliaments of European countries

12:00 – 12:20 Melih Kuran (Çanakkale Onsekiz Mart University): Smart Social Policies: Local Governments and the Transformation of Social Assistance in the Age of Digital Transformation

CHILDRENS, ELDERLY AND FAMILIES IN THE DIGITAL WORD

Moderator: Edit Kriston (University of Miskolc)

4th June 2025 (Timezone: Central European Summer Time)

10:00- 10:20 Chen Mengxuan (University of Szeged): Combating Abuse for the Elderly: Examining the Impact of Robocare in Long-Term Care Settings

10:20 - 10:40 Merve Ciftci - Nurten Ebru Özdemir (Bitlis Eren University): Being an elderly individual in digitalising word: Challenges Faced by the Elderly in the Process of Digitalization

10:40 - 11:00Gülnihal Tuncel- Doğa Başar Sarıipek- Gökçe Cerev (Kocaeli University): Emerging trends in youth policies in the era of digitalisation

11:00 – 11:20 Ayşe Kayaalp- Nurten Ebru Özdemir (Bitlis Eren University): Transformation of family structure in digital society: Divorce, social media and social work intention

11:20 – 11:40 Szymon Godawa (Univerity of Silesia): The Impact of Digitalization on Child Development in the Context of Public and Outdoor Education in Poland: Balancing Nature and Technology.

11:40 – 12:00 Alexandra Kovacs (University of Miskolc): Children as Influencers: Global Legal and Social Challenges of Minors in the Online Space

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch break

13:00 – 13:20 Petra Fráter-Bihari (University of Miskolc): Child-influencer - Influencer-child: work or fun?

13:20 – 13:40 Renáta Kálmán (University of Szeged): The rights of children and women in the context of Meta's human rights responsibility

13:40 – 14:00 Belen Trigo Garcia (University of Santiago de Compostela): Who Are You in the Digital Society? Relevant Influencers According to the Spanish Law

14:00 – 14:20 Denisa Kotroušová (University of West-Bohemia): Parents and Children in the Digital Age – Selected Aspects of New Challenges to Parental Responsibility in the Age of Digitalisation in the Czech Republic

14:20 – 14:40 Edit Kriston (University of Miskolc): Treat (?) the untreatable - sharenting in the light of parental responsibility in Hungary

DIGITALISATION, DATA PROTECTION AND CYBER-SECURITY

Moderator: Elizaveta Gromova (South Ural State University)

4th June 2025 (Timezone: Central European Summer Time)

10:00 - 10:20 Huthaifa Albustanji (University of Miskolc): Collaboration Between Cybersecurity and Cybercrime Agencies in the EU and Jordan

10:20 - 10:40 Rand Tuffaha Al-Hussaini (University of Szeged): Between Digital Security and Humanitarianism: The Case of Jordan

10:40 - 11:00 Wasim Khraisha (Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary): Trust in Cloud Services in Hungary: Data Protection, Public Perception, and Legal Compliance

11:00 - 11:20 Noor Dzuhaidah Osman (University Sains Islam Malaysia): The Cyberbiosecurity Frontier: Securing the Intersection of Tech and Biology

11:20 - 11:40 Zahra Delshad (University of Miskolc): Legal Approaches to Digital Privacy and Cyber Offenses in Iran's Evolving Digital Landscape

11:40 - 12:00 Anđelija Stevanović (University of Belgrade): Digital Battlefields: The Role of Technology in Modern Warfare and Its Impacts

12:00 - 12:20 Maria Assunta Saracino (University of Salento) :Digital transition in healthcare: EHDS and secondary use of health data

12:20 - 12:40 Andi Tri Haryono - Panggih Kusuma Ningrum (Universitas Wahid Hasyim Semarang): Indonesia’s Digital Sovereignty in the Age of Cloud Computing: Legal and AI Perspectives on Chinese Data Providers

DIGITALISATION AND HUMAN RIGHTS

Moderator: Magdalena Poltorak (University of Silezia)

4th June 2025 (Timezone: Central European Summer Time)

10:00 - 10:20 Réka Brigitta Szaniszló (University of Szeged): Regulating freedom of expression in Facebook posts in the context of socio-cultural issues

10:20 - 10:40 István Harkai (University of Szeged): What is the Real Problem with the European Press Publishers' Rights?

10:40 - 11:00 Bayan Oshan (Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary): Freedom of Expression in the Digital Age: The Role of Constitutional Courts in Turkey, Kazakhstan, and Uzbekistan

11:00 - 11:20 Tamás Pongó (University of Szeged): The human rights responsibility of social media platforms - Meta and the Oversight Board

11:20 - 11:40 Annagrazia Tomasi (University of Salento): Construction and deconstruction of the image in the digital word: protection of personal identity and deepfake

11:40 - 12:00 Morena Nigro (University of Salento): Digital Society and Health Discrimination. An Overview on the Italian Oncological Oblivion Law

12:00 -13:00 Lunch break

13:00 - 13:20 Aktham Raed Ahmad Alqattamin (University of Miskolc): Social Media and Human Rights: A Double-Edged Sword

13:20 - 13:40 Douaa Zaidan (University of Miskolc): "Disconnected in a Digital Europe: The COVID-19 Crisis and the Digital Divide in Italy"

13:40 - 14:00 Balkis Oueslati (University of Szeged): Navigating the Digital Minefield: Due Diligence Challenges for Social Media Platforms

14:00 - 14:20 Aurél Csík (University of Miskolc): The contrast between the freedom of press and 'fake news' in the light of restriction on freedom of expression

14:20 - 14:40 Zsófia Kata Prém (University of Miskolc): Digital Runway: Challenges of Intellectual Property Protection in the Metaverse

14:40 - 15:00 Raheleh Soltanibahrehmand (University of Miskolc): the Impact of Internet on Visual Arts

15:00 - 15:20 Federica Vilei (University of Salento): Digital creativity and copyright law reform. An italian perspective on AI-generated works